THE RED CARPET INDIE FILM FESTIVAL

WHERE: DESTINTA THEATRES, 2465 SOUTH BROAD ST., HAMILTON, NJ

WHEN: August 1-7, 2009

ATTENTION: FILMMAKERS

Do you have a film that you want to get the Hollywood treatment, complete with a Red Carpet premiere and a week-long engagement at a Multiplex theater?

We at AUD/MAX, with the cooperation of Destinta Theatres, are proud to announce the start of an exciting new project, The Red Carpet Independent Film Festival. We are bringing Hollywood to the East coast where filmmakers have the chance to have their films seen for two showings per day for a 1 week engagement on a big screen at the Destinta multiplex theatre at 2465 South Broad Street in Hamilton, NJ by not only the public, but by the major studios as well. A festival will be held each month. This is where rumors become legend.

Filmmakers are not only the focus of the festival, but also the beneficiaries as promotion, marketing and publicity are to be had amidst a deal making atmosphere. The Red Carpet Indie Film Festival is a proving ground for the filmmaker and showcases the per screen potential to the industry. We filter the waiting and promotion for your film and cut to the chase for industry executives to gauge talent and to strike a deal in a preproduction to premiere setting. We're offering the chance for distribution deals to be cut with the exposure provided. The filmmaker gets week-long exposure and saves on money and travel.

The showings consist of three feature films and three shorts which will preclude the features.

Watch the game change at The Red Carpet Indie Film Festival.

AUD/MAX is an entertainment company, based in Central Jersey, that has made inroads in New York and Hollywood and has had the honor of having one of our screenplays turned into a Sony Pictures film, American Crude starring Rob Schneider, Ron Livingston and Michael Clarke Duncan.
